

I am a constant listener to K-Love, everywhere I go, both around my local community, aswell as around the country. Many times, I listen through translators. K-Love provides uplifting music which is a real asset to large swaths of our community. Alowing a LPFM station to take away from K-Love's broadcast would be a great disservice.